The former emperor, according to a contributor to the Maastricht newspaper, felt his position keenly, and kept himself hidden in the railway car throughout his stay at the station. Some of his companions were much more visibly impressed with the situation than the former emperor himself.

Upper Sandusky Suffers Loss of Quarter of Million by Fire This Morning.

A dozen mercantile houses and contents are a total loss. The $500,000 Wyandott county court house was damaged by smoke.

Ten persons were caught under a falling wall and two were injured probably fatally. A. B. Whitney, president of the Ohio Manufacturing Co., and Bernard Walters were seriously injured but will recover. The others escaped with minor injuries.

Ten persons were rescued from the second story of the Osborne rooming house by firemen. The guests of the Hotel Fetter had ample time to flee and the contents of the hotel were saved.

The fire was discovered at 1:00 o'clock this morning and is thought to have originated in the Bon Ton Bakery, the rear of which was found ablaze.

Fire trucks were rushed from Marion, Bucyrus and Carey. With chemicals the firemen saved a half dozen residences which were ignited by sparks, with trifling damage.

It is estimated a fourth of the loss is covered by insurance.

STUDENT OFFICERS MAY RETURN TO CIVIL LIFE

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, November 14.—Student officers now training at the army central training camps probably will be permitted to return to civil life immediately if they so desire, Secretary Baker indicated Wednesday.

No definite decision has been reached as yet, Mr. Baker said, but he is inclined not to hold men at the training camps against their will.

The camps themselves probably will be continued until the present classes have been graduated. At the expiration of that period, those who complete the course will be tendered commissions in the officers' reserve corps.

L. ERVIN PARRETT THE OLDEST LIVING POLAND BREEDER

An excellent picture of Mr. L. Ervin Parrett, well known Fayette County Poland China breeder, appears in a recent issue of "The Poland China Journal," accompanied by an interesting sketch of the "oldest living Poland Breeder."

The Journal says in part: "Of the many breeders attracted to the National Swine Show from all parts of the country none was more interested or more interesting than L. Ervin Parrett, of Washington C. H., O. Mr. Parrett claims the distinction of being the oldest living Poland China breeder, having commenced his breeding operations in 1867, some six years before the first pure bred record was established. In fact Mr. Parrett was one of the founders of the old Ohio record and a contemporary of the foremost pioneer breeders. His loyalty and efficient work at a time when many obstacles had to be overcome was in no small way responsible for its success.

Sad to relate Mr. Parrett is now breeding Hampshires, but not for lack of love for Poland Chinas. Local conditions and the fact that his seventy odd years make it impossible for him to take an active part in the affairs of the breed, led to his change.

That the Poland China breed was inherently good from the start is shown by the fact that in those days Mr. Parrett sold a bunch of 40 head on the Cincinnati Market weighing an average of 624½ pounds at 19 months of age. These were the culms from his herd after selling 50 head of tops to breeders. The load brought 5¼ cents a pound.

Two Places

The world has, during the week, joyfully acclaimed the coming of victory and peace, there have been many great heart centers where, for some particular reason, the peace celebrations were surrounded by some hallowed memory of the tragedy of war.

Paris, London, New York, Rome, and all the great cities in allied lands, were delirious with joy and wild acclaim, but we believe now, if given the choice of all places, we would have stood beside the British at Mons where, for them, the war ended and where, for them, it began. Mons, where the "contemptible" British army under Sir John French was to be destroyed, the war lord said in 1914. Mons, where the gallant little handful of British hung on and checked the flood by sheer grit, where scores of thousands perished in defeat.

Mons, where victory came four years later. We should have stood with bowed head in memory of that glorious past and in bright presence of triumphant right.

Friday we should like to be in Brussels, when King Albert and the Belgians return in triumph to their capital and begin anew, with the fragments of a brave people, the work of building up again their destroyed nation.

Every section of the war zone has its heart but, it seems to us, that Mons and Brussels have taken their place in the history of the world.

The Test of Victory

The alliance of nations which has won the victory, at awful cost in blood and treasure, has been held together and made more powerful, through all the dark times of adversity, by splendid ideals. Those ideals, steadfastly adhered to, have brought glorious triumph to the armies.

"The victory on the field of battle is complete. History will record it as the most momentous ever won by an army.

Whether the triumph will endure, whether the great glory of the present will be perpetuated through the future, depends upon whether we hold to our ideals, now that victory has come to our armies, or forget that which has made us great and triumphant over wrong.

Mankind has won a great victory and we must make that victory, won at such frightful cost, an enduring one—we must make ourselves worthy of that victory so that history will record the allied nations as great in the peace that follows victory as we were on the field of battle in the frightful struggle.

We have no fear that the peoples of the allied nations will measure up to the test, to which they are now being subjected, as completely as they measured up to the tests of war.

The broad statesmanship of President Wilson has been the beacon light during the storm and in his address to Congress on Monday he expressed the ideals to which we should cling in this time of victory and peace, in these words:

"The present and all that it holds belongs to the nations and the peoples who preserve their self-control and the orderly processes of their governments; the future to those who prove themselves the true friends of mankind. To conquer with arms is to make only a temporary conquest; to conquer the world by earning its esteem is to make permanent conquest. I am confident that the nations that have learned the discipline of freedom and that have settled with self-possession to its ordered practice are now about to make conquest of the world by the sheer power of example and of friendly helpfulness.

"The peoples who have but just come out from under the yoke of arbitrary government and who are now coming at last into their freedom will never find the treasures of liberty they are in search of if they look for them by the light of the torch. They will find that every pathway that is stained with the blood of their own brothers leads to the wilderness, not to the seat of their hope. They are now face to face with their initial test. We must hold the light steady until they find themselves. And in the meantime, if it be possible, we must establish a peace that will justly define their place among the nations, remove all fear of their neighbors and of their former masters, and enable them to live in security and contentment when they have set their own affairs in order. I, for one, do not doubt their purpose or their capacity. There are some happy signs that they know and will choose the way of self-control and peaceful accommodation. If they do, we shall put our aid at their disposal in every way that we can. If they do not, we must await with patience and sympathy the awakening and recovery that will assuredly come at last."

President Wilson has given to the world, the true ideals of war, the ideals for which humanity fought and suffered and died, the ideals which brought victory to mankind, but never did he express more clearly, more beautifully, more humanely, those ideals of war than he has the ideals of peace which must make our nations great by example, powerful to lead the way to a peace enduring through all the ages because we are deserving of victory which we have won.

POEM FOR TODAY

THE FALL OF KINGS

Let Hapsburg and the Hohenzollerns go,
 And all the rest who brought this world to woe!
 Let them go plow the fields and sow the grain,
 To feed the babes whose fathers they have slain!

Let them go plow the fields and sow with grain,
 Instead of butchered men, each hill and plain,
 That each might keep his crown upon his head,
 Upheld by countless myriads of dead.

Let Hapsburgs and the Hohenzollerns go,
 And others like, that peace this world may know!
 The earth cries out in loud and vain protest
 At seas of human blood poured on her breast.
 Let all their boasted lands go to the poor,
 Whose homes in ruins lie, with all their store,
 That those they've robbed may have their own again,
 Free from the dread of royal tyrant's chain.

Let them restore the cities fair, laid low
 By every form of wrong that man may know—
 Restore the peaceful vales they've laid in waste,
 And drink the gall they've forced the world to taste!

They yet will reap what they have sown, in years
 Of vain regret, in penitence, and tears!
 Oh! time of endless cruelty to man,
 When will the world have done with kingly clan?
 —New York Times.

"THE WATCH ON THE RHINE"

HARTMAN THEATER

COLUMBUS, OHIO.

Cohn & Harris' newest play offering, "The Little Teacher," which will be presented at the Hartman Theater, Columbus, Ohio, all next week, commencing Monday, November 18, is a comedy in four acts, by Harry James Smith, with Mary Ryan in the leading role.

When Mary Ryan is announced for a new play people naturally expect something very human, gripping and lovable. And when the author of that play is known to be Harry James Smith, who wrote "The Tailor Made Man," and the producers Cohn & Harris—the firm whose very name seems to be a talisman of success—the rosiest expectations are justified. All the world loves a love story and here is one with an exceptionally strong and novel appeal. All the world loves children, and here is a little group of healthy, real-life youngsters, who awaken affection in the most hardened country life, not the kind of country life which the typical "rural" plays have made so painfully familiar, but country life as it is really lived, with its lights and shadows, fun, quaintness and drama.

As a play "The Little Teacher" may be especially commended because of its humanity and optimism. It renews your belief in the big fundamental things of life, love, pluck, patriotism, and a play that does that in these times is worth while, you'll admit.

NO LETTING UP IN WATCHFULNESS BY UNCLE SAMUEL

That the American Protective League, which has done such splendid work in aiding the government in handling countless problems arising as result of the war, must continue its activities just as all American citizens must continue to do their part until the last American soldier has been returned from France and conditions become normal, is the declaration of A. B. Bielaski, chief of the Department of Justice.

A TWICE-TOLD TALE

One of Interest to Our Readers
 Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitate to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of a Washington C. H. woman is confirmed after four years.

Mrs. Harriet Syferd, 618 S. Main St., Washington C. H., says: "I had a great deal of misery in my back and I was nearly laid up with attacks of lumbago. When I over-exerted, my kidneys caused me considerable annoyance. I had bladder trouble, too, and often suffered with inflammation. I was restless after going to bed and mornings, it was an effort for me to do my work. I was all run down. After I had taken two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was entirely cured." (Statement given August 1, 1913.)

 On August 6, 1917 Mrs. Syferd said: "I am pleased to say Doan's Kidney Pills have brought a lasting cure of lumbago and the other symptoms of kidney trouble, in my case." 60c. at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. Adv.

Why Compare Beef and Coal Profits?

Swift & Company has frequently stated that its profit on beef averages only one-fourth of a cent a pound, and hence has practically no effect on the price.

Comparison has been made by the Federal Trade Commission of this profit with the profit on coal, and it has pointed out that anthracite coal operators are content with a profit of 25 cents a ton, whereas the beef profit of one-fourth of a cent a pound means a profit of $5.00 a ton.

The comparison does not point out that anthracite coal at the seaboard is worth at wholesale about $7.00 a ton, whereas a ton of beef of fair quality is worth about $400.00 wholesale.

To carry the comparison further, the 25 cent profit on coal is 3 1/2 per cent of the $7.00 value.

The $5.00 profit on beef is only 1 1/4 per cent of the $400.00 value.

The profit has little effect on price in either case, but has less effect on the price of beef than on the price of coal.

Coal may be stored in the open air indefinitely; beef must be kept in expensive coolers because it is highly perishable and must be refrigerated.

Coal is handled by the carload or ton; beef is delivered to retailers by the pound or hundred weight.

Methods of handling are vastly different. Coal is handled in open cars; beef must be shipped in refrigerator cars at an even temperature.

Fairness to the public, fairness to Swift & Company, fairness to the packing industry, demands that these indisputable facts be considered. It is impossible to disprove Swift & Company's statement, that its profits on beef are so small as to have practically no effect on prices.

News of Interest to Women

The influenza situation having greatly improved, it now seems safe to plan a meeting of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs necessary to transact certain important business.

The nominating committee must be chosen and certain other matters attended to which are not within the province of the Executive Board. After consultation with the Board, the President has decided to call a meeting of the Council the first week in December.

Our gracious hostesses, the women of Coshocton, are most desirous that this Council meeting shall be held in the convention city, thus demonstrating that, though disappointed, they are not discouraged. The exact dates of this meeting will be decided upon later, and notices will be sent to each club. It is desirable that the President of each federated club or a representative shall attend.

If every club would realize that it was a vital part of the state organization, and feel a responsibility in its affairs, the power and influence of the Federation would be unlimited. The unfortunate impression seems to obtain that only the Executive Board and Chairmen of Committees should be responsible for the conduct of the five hundred and fifty organizations constituting the Federation.

While no attempt will be made to arrange a very definite program for the meeting of the Council, it has been decided to have an evening session open to the public with a speaker of national reputation on a vital topic which shall help us to meet the responsibilities of world peace.

The combined Oct. and Nov. meetings of the Women's Home Missionary Society, was an all day one, Wednesday, held in the Grace Church basement. Forty-seven members attended.

Both month's hostesses Mesdames Ella Taylor Corda Armstrong, Charles Griffith, E. F. Todhunter, Frank Christopher, O. S. Tobin, Louella Judy, Tom Maddux, George Hayes, Harry Rowe, Pruden, G. S. Hodson, Sam Cissna, Nan Taylor, Will Bishop, Henry Pearce, Taggart of Jeffersonville, Mrs. Nannie Taylor and Mrs. Alice Parrett, chairman had the meeting in charge and the box luncheon. Rev. Cherrington was an honor guest.

The morning was devoted to Red Cross work and sewing of carpet rags for rugs for the society.

In the afternoon the regular order of business was conducted. Mrs. W. F. Dial reported that the gratifying sum of $70.30 had been realized from the Rummage Sale; and the Treasurer was instructed to send the remainder of the tuition money to Olive Hill, Ky., to pay the society's student's tuition for entire year.

The President, Mrs. Willis appointed, Mrs. F. G. Carpenter to have charge of the Thank Offering program, at the next meeting the second Wednesday in December the eleventh at which meeting all the women of the church are invited to attend.

A program of utmost interest was presented, the President conducting the devotionals and presiding.

Mrs. Carpenter, who always delights her audiences gave a short talk on "The War Work of the Young Women's Christian Association," and a reading from the Home Missions, "On the Shelf."

One of the Moody stories was told by Mrs. Ola Boyer.

The Doxology lead by Mrs. Heron was sung with marked enthusiasm, as the women felt they had so much to be thankful for peace coming to our country, the State going dry, and the satisfactory finances of the Society's treasury this year.

It was decided to send letters of sympathy to be written by the secretary to those members of the society, who were bereft of loved ones in the recent epidemic.

The names of Mesdames Will Reif, Iro O'Brian and Miss Ida Post were presented for membership in the society.

Plate collection amounted to $4.23.

The Boy's Sunday School Class of Wesley Chapel had a social gathering at Mr. and Mrs. Forest Binns on South Main street Wednesday evening.

Ice cream, cake and popcorn were served after an enjoyable time spent in playing games.

Those present were: Misses Essyle Bell, Janet Barger, Frances McCoy, Luella Hickman, Frances White, Vinnie Rean Connor, Arthur Elliott, Carl Householder, Howard and Ralph Barger, Gilbert and Brown Grieves, Albert Kislung, John Laufer, Virgil Kislung, Virgil and Forrest Cramblit, Dwight Bell, Harry and Robert Ferguson, Harry and John Binns and R. Browning.

The Sugar Grove W. C. T. U. held a Jubilee meeting at the home of Miss Minnie Brakefield, Wednesday afternoon.

The regular program was given up and the hour devoted to a service of thankfulness for the temperance victory gained at the polls. The County President, Mrs. Alice Taggart was a guest and made an impressive talk.

A business session was held, the chief features of which were the appointing of a committee to select and send Christmas gifts to the French child adopted by the Union, and the heads of the departments, Mrs. W. W. Elliott and Miss Juanita Haines were placed on the committee.

The following superintendents were appointed—anti-narcotics and medical Temperance, Mrs. Eva McCoy, health an efficiency, Mrs. Laura Pine, Press; Miss Juanita Haines.

Flower Mission and Relief, Mrs. Leo Burke, Mrs. Theresa Brakefield; scientific temperance and Sunday School work, Mrs. Belle Marine; Soldiers and Sailors, Mrs. Clara Campbell, Mrs. Blanche Boyer; Red Letter Day, Mrs. Bess Lanum.

One new member was received, Mrs. Mary Arehart.

Each member was asked to bring forty cents as a thank offering to the next meeting.

Light refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

The Daughters of the American Revolution are planning to send an assortment of jellies and marmalade to Camp Sherman before Thanksgiving. All Daughters are asked to send their contributions to the homes of either the Regent, Mrs. Harriet Woodward, on S. Fayette street or the Vice Regent, Mrs. M. S. Daugherty on North Hind street.

Any friends who desire are welcome to add to the collection.

Mrs. Albert Snider and children moved Thursday from this city to Wilmington, to join Mr. Snider, who has purchased a shoe business there.

The family expect to make their future home in Wilmington to the great regret of a large circle of friends here.

Mrs. Daniel H. Van Winkle and Mrs. James Ford are spending a couple of days with friends in Dayton.

Mrs. Glenn Rodgers returned the first of the week from a motoring trip to Indianapolis, Ind., to visit her sister, Mrs. George James. The party with whom she went, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Schmid, daughter, Katharine Mae, and Miss Bertha Schmid, of Toledo, spent the day here before going on to Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larkins and three children were motoring guests from Hillsboro in this city Wednesday.

H. C. Shoop leaves for Columbus, O., Friday morning to meet the remains of his nephew Charles Sollars, of Ogdenburg, N. Y., and accompany the wife, as relatives to this city, where burial will take place in our cemetery immediately on arrival of the body, which is supposed to reach this city Friday at 3:30 p. m.

Postmaster S. A. Murry is confined to his home with an attack of the influenza.

The Coffee Market

has been advancing rapidly. On all grades the advance has been from 3c to 6c per pound. Up to now we have had a supply of coffee on hands, bought at the old price, which has enabled us to sell at our former prices.

We have had to buy, however, on the new market, hence shall be compelled to advance our prices on Fresh Roasted Coffee. The quality will be of the same high quality as formerly.

Formerly	Now

Special Peaberry.....	22c 28c
Washington Blend.....	30c 33c
Reception Blend.....	25c
Royal Blend.....	40c
Royal Sceptre.....	42c
White Oak.....	32c

No change in price

We have a number of customers who purchase coffee in 25-lb. lots. They save quite a little by buying in quantity. Our Washington Blend 33c Coffee the best seller we have, can be purchased at 30c in 25-lb. lots. The saving is 75 cents.

Give us your order for 25 pounds. Don't take it all out at one time. Coffee deteriorates rapidly after it is roasted. Take it as you need it, one or two pounds at a time. You will thus be assured of your coffee being fresh.

Indications are that coffee will be much higher. Your order now for a 25-lb. lot will save you quite a little.

Fresh roasted coffee is always good.

WANT GUILTY PUNISHED.

(Associated Press Cable)

Copenhagen, Tuesday, November 12.—The new Bavarian government has sent a message to President Wilson through Switzerland expressing its fears that the armistice terms will bring chaos to the disordered young republic and requesting that Great Britain, France and Italy be asked to punish the guilty. The message adds that the German autocracy and military party do not deserve mercy.

ANOTHER FAYETTE MAN WAS WOUNDED

Mr. and Mrs. John I. Cox, of Washington R. D. No. 2, have received a letter from their son, Private Herbert S. Cox, of M Company, stating that he is now in a Red Cross hospital recovering from wounds received in action.

Private Cox was wounded in the left hand, where a German machine gun bullet penetrated his hand, inflicting an ugly wound. Writing to his parents under date of October 20th he states that he is in a hospital near Bordeaux, and urges his parents to have everyone who can do so to boost for the Red Cross.

BURY HER WITH HONORS.

(For the Red Cross Nurse who died of Influenza at an Army Camp.)

Bury her with honors. With the flag upon her breast; For she gave her life as bravely As the soldier who's at rest.

'Tis true she was but a woman. Modest and shy to the core; But she died at the post of duty; Could valiant man do more?

She knew she was in danger From the pestilence she braved. Yet still she nursed the stranger. By her care his life was saved.

The cross she wore on her forehead For her was a symbol true; Like one of old she suffered. She died for others too.

Aye, bury her with honors Lay the colors on her breast; For she was in truth a soldier. And her courage stood the test.

SUGAR ALLOWANCE WILL BE 4 POUNDS

It will be good news to citizens generally that beginning December 1st the sugar allowance per person each month will be four pounds instead of three pounds as at present.

Increase in the beet sugar producing states and in the cane producing territory of Louisiana permitted an increase of the household sugar allotments from three pound to four pounds monthly per capita which was ordered Wednesday by the food administration, effective Dec. 1. At the same time public eating places in these sections will be permitted to increase their consumption from three pounds to four pounds for every 90 meals served.

Ohio is a beet sugar producing state and therefore entitled to the increase allowance, it is said.

For the remainder of the country, it was stated, the allotments of three pounds monthly per capita for households and three pounds per 90 meals for public eating houses will be continued for the present at least.

The increase for sugar producing states was granted, the food administration announced, because of the lack of cargo space for overseas shipment, together with insufficient storage facilities in this country.

OFFICER HERO

LIEUTENANT CRAVEN

Lieutenant F. W. Craven, of the British Royal Navy, has earned for himself a place in the annals of the world's naval heroes. When the American transport Otranto carrying American troops overseas was seriously crippled in a collision with the steamer Kashmir, it was Lieutenant Craven, in command of the British torpedo boat destroyer Moundsey, acting as convoy, who ordered those aboard the stricken Otranto to lower the lifeboats, to act as buffers, and then brought his tiny vessel alongside the Otranto in the heaviest of seas and took off safely more than 500 Yankee boys. Three times he drove his tiny craft alongside the Otranto and held her close while the soldiers jumped from the transport to the deck of the destroyer. Lieutenant Craven has been mentioned in official dispatches for his heroic deed.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

The following letter was received by Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Sommers, of New Martinsburg, from their son Howard, who was wounded on September 30th, and is in a United States base hospital:

France, October 14, 1918.

My dear folks:
I shall write a short letter today, my birthday. This birthday I am spending in a U. S. A. base hospital. More than a week ago I wrote you telling of my wound. I got it just two weeks ago today. In the other letter I did not tell you much about the nature of the wound. A small piece of shrapnel hit me on top of the shoulder and lodged in the ligaments of the joint. The shrapnel was taken out soon after I was hit. Since then I have been getting along nicely and will continue to do so. My arm is in a sling which accounts for this scribbling.

Now, folks, don't worry. The wound is slight and I am getting the best of care. Folks, you and I have very much to be thankful for.

We are watching with much interest Germany's bid for peace. It begins to look as if the war will end soon, although it is hard to convince us that the treacherous boche is not trying to lead the allies into a trap. The next month will more than likely be one in which history will be made. If an armistice is not declared the Hun will be so badly beaten that he will shout "Kamerad" on his knees.

Everyone of you take good care of yourself. The time will soon come when I'll be at home with a world of things to talk about.

Well, I must quit for this time. I won't try to write many letters, perhaps one a week to you folks at home. You can tell the friends how I am getting along.

PVT. HOWARD A. SOMMERS,
H. Q. Co., 54th U. S. Infantry, American E. F.

GERMANS HAD BIG PROGRAM

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Stockholm, November 8.—German government officials and private associations have been engaged in an extensive movement to colonize German settlers in the formerly Russian Baltic provinces of Courland, Lithuania and Estonia. This is one phase and an important one of the German plan to gain commercial and economic ascendancy in those provinces bordering on the Baltic Sea.

A state colonization bureau is already in existence in Berlin, and a special association for colonizing the eastern provinces has been formed in addition. This association has already accumulated a considerable fund for the purpose of settling Germans in the Baltic provinces. The Saxon provincial diet has appropriated a half million marks for this purpose. This work is also being aided by the Baltic Germans. Many of them, holders of large entailed estates, have expressed a willingness to sell portions thereof—naturally at a good price—to intending German colonists.

Courland alone, if it were as thickly populated as East Prussia, could support 2,000,000 inhabitants. It now has only 700,000.

Germany greatly needs food, and hence devoted special energy to bringing about a resumption and extension of agriculture in the Baltic provinces.

ROOSEVELT IMPROVED.

By Associated Press Dispatch
New York, November 14.—Physicians attending Colonel Roosevelt, who is at Roosevelt Hospital here suffering from sciatica and rheumatism, said tonight that he had passed a comfortable day and that his progress toward recovery could hardly be more favorable.
